

NEWS FROM WASHINGTON.

THE RECENT DEBATE OF GENERAL BANKS.
The movements of the rebel force under Johnston, Ewell and Jackson, which, through the blunder of Fremont, was afforded an opportunity to fall upon Banks' small force at Front Royal and Strasburg, are perfectly known at the War Department, and all the arrangements necessary in regard to them have been made.

A NEW PHASE OF THE PERSONAL CLAUSE IN THE TAX BILL.
Mr. Fessenden stated today in debate that in his opinion the tax upon persons held to service would bring as much into the Treasury from the North as from the South. He said, the white apprentices would be a standard to the slaves in the matter of income. The admission of a practical man is the best possible proof of the fraudulent character of the pretence that what is lost to the Treasury by not taxing cotton will be made up by taxing negroes.

THE TAX ON COTTON.
The House proposition to tax cotton is about the only practical way of making the States in which the rebellion originated pay any part of the expenses of the war. New England manufacturers, who are blighted with wealth by the effect of the war and the present protective tariff system, have agents here to operate upon Congressmen, many of whom are attorneys at law, to prevent a taxation that will bring from twenty millions of dollars into the Treasury.

There is a great lobby to prevent taxation upon cotton, and the drift of their talk is that it will fall back upon labor, if such is to be the probable effect, why are manufacturers here to prevent the impost?

FILED OF THE BORDER SLAVE STATES AGAINST A TAX ON SLAVES.
Senator Henderson made the point that the taxing of slaves was another of the burdens laid upon the loyal slave States. Kentucky, Missouri, &c., had terribly suffered by war's desolations. Yet, the heavy burden of sustaining the government was to fall upon them rather than the rebel States. He said that if the Southern people were such wretches as they were described by Senator Sumner, he should suppose that that Senator would scorn and loathe the thought of being part and parcel with them in one body politic.

THE PRISONERS IN THE OLD CAPITOL PRISON.
The number of military and State prisoners now confined in the old Capitol prison is one hundred and fifty.

THE CONTRABAND ARRIVALS.
The daily arrival of contrabands reported at the contraband headquarters, Dufr Green's Building, averages thirty; but these comprise only a small portion of all that arrive here. The number is becoming burthenous. One hundred have been sent to the Arlington station, to be employed as farm laborers; but the officers in charge are at a loss to dispose of the hundreds requiring their care.

THE NEW STEAM CANNON.
A trial of the cannon mill gun made at the arsenal today, in the presence of Generals Sigel, Carl Schurz and a number of army officers. Major Rowland fired the piece at the rate of two hundred balls a minute. The balls fell in the water at a distance of half a mile. General Sigel fired twenty-four balls in ten seconds, all of the balls striking the target within a space of four inches diameter.

GENERAL STURGIS' NEW COMMAND.
The command of the troops for the defence of the capital, on the north side of the Potomac, has been assigned to Brigadier General Sturgis, who commanded at Wilson's creek, after Gen. Lyon was mortally wounded. General Sturgis is emphatically a soldier. He professes to know nothing except his professional duties. His ability has been proved in a long service in the army, and by gallant conduct in the field. If allowed to perfect his organization of this command he will soon have a splendid body of troops, perfectly disciplined and ready for any emergency.

It has been rumored that General Sturgis has been selected as the successor of General Wadsworth, Military Governor, who is to be assigned to other duty. This appointment would be hailed with delight by the majority of the loyal citizens of Washington. The assaults of the Tristans upon the United States Marshal of the District are understood to be occasioned by the fact that the Marshal holds two writs for the arrest of Mr. Greeley, upon criminal charges. The loyalty of Colonel Hanson is regarded as far superior to that of General Greeley. His popularity here may be understood by a proposition that, if he would consent to accept the Mayoralty, he should have the unanimous support of the loyal voters of the city.

WISH OF THE HOUSE NAVAL COMMITTEE TO FORTRESS MONROE AND NORFOLK.
The House having taken a recess until Monday, the members of the Committee on Naval Affairs will tomorrow consummate their projected visit to Fortress Monroe and Norfolk. Many of them will be accompanied by their families.

ADVANCEMENTS IN THE NAVAL SERVICE.
It is thought in naval circles that the bill before Congress for increasing the grade of officers of the navy, so as to conform to the system of other national navies, will pass. In this case officers of inferior grades, who have fought with great distinction during the present war, will find themselves notably promoted.

MOVEMENTS OF GENERAL SIGEL.
General Sigel is set upon by the radicals, who wish to turn his military fame to personal and partisan account. There is reason for believing that he is not a convert to the idea of arming negroes, and instilling the rabble in raising the black flag on the battle field, and enforcing the laws of Drano in the loyal States.

THE COSTS OF THE DISTRICT SOLDIERS' HOME.
It appears by a report from the War Department that the cost of the grounds, buildings, &c., of the Soldiers' Home near this city is about three hundred thousand dollars. Last year there were on an average, one hundred and thirty-seven inmates. The cost of each is nearly two hundred and sixty-three dollars.

UNREST STRUCTURES UPON THE WAR DEPARTMENT.
Every member of the Cabinet, and it is believed every earnest friend of the government, here deplores the hasty censures visited upon the War Department by some of the loyal papers in the country. It has been already stated by Mr. Wilson, in the Senate, upon the highest authority, that the disposition of our forces, which is commended, was sanctioned by the President, and it is equally true that it was approved by the whole administration. Successes such as the country did not expect the War Department to have made, are being made which would seem to insure a continuance of them. Seasonal failures and reverses must happen but the Nation is not more responsible for those than it is entitled to the public gratitude for the success of our armies.

ENFORCEMENT OF THE FUGITIVE SLAVE LAW IN THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA.
Recently John Dean, Esq., presented to the Circuit Court the petition of Daniel Reed for a writ of habeas corpus to Marshal Lamon, for the discharge of a colored man, claimed by a citizen of Maryland as his slave, on the ground that said alleged fugitive is illegally detained by the marshal. The marshal is not authorized by the Fugitive Slave Law of 1850, in other words, that the law does not apply to the District of Columbia.

Mr. Dean to-day continued his argument to show the writ could not be refused. The Court had previously intimated they would not grant the writ, and today said an appeal could be taken to the Supreme Court of the United States on the refusal, just as well as upon the writ. Further argument will be heard to-morrow.

The Fugitive Slave Law continues to be enforced. During this month about fifty slaves have been returned to their claimants.

THE MONTHLY CENSUS REPORT.
The manuscript sheets of the forthcoming preliminary report on the eighth census, the printing of which has been ordered by Congress, consist of some twenty charts, devoted to important illustrations of the progress of the country in population, agriculture, manufactures and other permanent interests, written in a manner to render statistics attractive to the common reader. It embraces a view of the progress of slavery and the colored race, and of slavery among Indian tribes. It contains a carefully prepared chapter on immigration, and illustrates the changes which have been wrought in the representation in Congress. The subjects of medicine and disease are treated in a series of charts, and the history is given of the progress made in the treatment of the deaf and dumb, blind, insane and idiotic in this country and Europe. The progress of the country in its banks and monetary concerns receives due mention, while the condition of the news, paper press and its progress are given with accuracy and care. So far as the subjects embraced by the census have been tabulated, the report of the Superintendent details the results of that great work. The chapter on the progress of manufactures and the mechanical arts will excite wonder, not only in this country, but in Europe, at the amazing advance we have made in the last ten years. The report will include many tables which form the basis of the narrative. A volume of this character will be of much more practical use and possess much greater interest than a dozen volumes of figures. The work is similar in many respects to the report of Mr. Kennedy of the seventh census, which was taken under his direction, and which he was not permitted to compile as he published it.

THE CONTRABAND QUARTERS.
At the contraband rendezvous there are three hundred negroes, many of them from Maryland, but principally from Virginia. They are not employed either by the government or private individuals, but are open for such disposition. Besides this number, there are here now near two hundred others, who work every day, in a highly, as is said, satisfactory manner.

The daily average receipt of contrabands of war previous to the late movement of General Banks was from twenty to thirty. Since that time it has fallen off very considerably indeed. Many of them are anxious to leave the country. Some are actually preparing to do so. It is two, four, five, six, seven, eight, nine, ten, eleven, twelve, thirteen, fourteen, fifteen, sixteen, seventeen, eighteen, nineteen, twenty, twenty-one, twenty-two, twenty-three, twenty-four,
